FlowerPot Table

PRODUCT

An object cannot become a design icon until it has stood the test of time and appears quite naturally in different settings, giving it a symbolic aura of its own. FlowerPot is just that. The famous lamp was named after the happy days of Flower Power.

DESIGNER

Verner Panton, the most remarkable innovative talent of 20th Century design and architecture. His design was consistently brilliant. Verner Panton was not obstructed by limitations that adults incur throughout life. Instead, he thought and created with imaginary vision of a child, in bold beautiful colors and shapes. Of the lamps Verner Panton designed, FlowerPot and Topan stand out as some of the simplest and most memorable designs.
